

Faculty Woman's Club History To Be Re-Enacted

History of the Faculty Woman's Club on the University campus will be re-enacted in a program to be held in celebration of the club's 25th anniversary at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Lydia Mendelssohn theater of the Michigan League.

Present board members of the club will portray early leaders in the first board meeting held in 1921. Mrs. Alexander Ruthven, president of the group, will act the role of Mrs. Marion Leroy Burton, wife of University President Burton, who held a tea 25 years ago at her home for the purpose of starting the club. Mrs. Wilfrid Dempster of Abbott Ave. will be narrator for this section of the program, while Mrs. Albert Marckwardt of Berkshire Rd. is director.

To Present Skit

The Newcomers' section will present a script written by Mrs. Arthur W. Burks of Tappan Ave. Mrs. H. T. Ballentine of Wayne St. is narrator. Members of the section taking part in the skit are Mrs. G. H. Bauer of W. Washington St., Mrs. Harry Freund of Plymouth Rd., Mrs. Brooks Lockhart of Forest Ave., Mrs. Edward Lirette of W. Hoover Ave., Mrs. Edward Daseler of Washtenaw Ave., Mrs. Gerald Cooper of South Boulevard, Mrs. Warren Chase of Huntington Dr., Mrs. Ivan Duff of University Terrace, Mrs. Robert Niccolls of Geddes Ave., Mrs. F. Bruce Kimball of Packard St., Mrs. Robert Cameron of Madison St., and Mrs. John Carey of Willow Village.

The Monday evening drama group will contribute to the program with the reading of a play by Mrs. Gerald M. Ridenour of Harvard Pl. and Mrs. John Trytten of Forest Ave.

Musical Program

A musical program, representing a typical meeting of the "20's," will be given by members of the music section in costume. The program, arranged by Mrs. Warren Good of Brooklyn Ave. and Mrs. Floyd Calhoun of Oswego Ave., consists of a string trio, a piano selection, and a chorale singing by a group of members.

Following the program, tea will be served in the Henderson room of the League. Hostesses will be Mrs. Walter C. Newell of Helen Newberry Residence, Mrs. Florence L. Preston of Mary Markley house, Mrs. Robert Craig of Geddes Ave., and Mrs. Louis J. Rouse of Michigan Ave. Presiding at the tea tables will be Mrs. Joseph L. Markley of Packard St., Mrs. Russell Stevenson of Barton Hills, and Mrs. Max Winkler of Cambridge Rd.
